TO SEE, TO BE, TO DO: PRIMARY PERSPECTIVES OF WORLD RELIGIONS

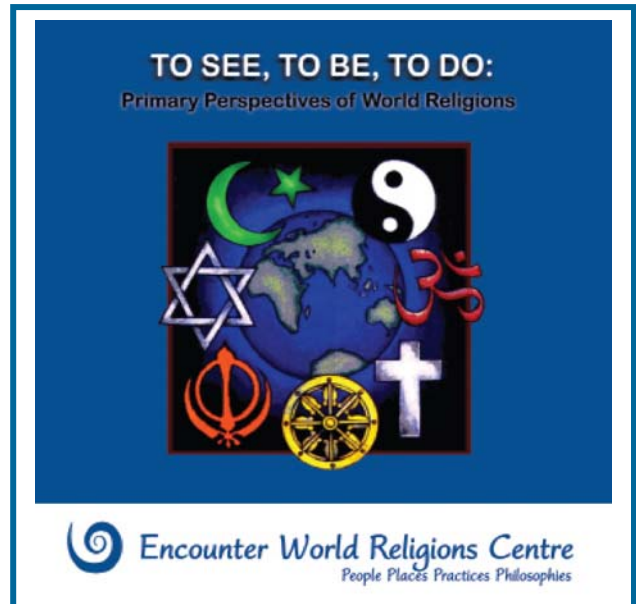

Produced by

Encounter World Religions Centre
People Places Practices Philosophies

Presented by
JW Windland

JW Windland is a comparative mythologist and founder of the Encounter World Religions Centre. He has more than thirty-five years experience in the study, teaching and first-hand encounters with world religions. JW lectures internationally to universities, religious groups, and service and professional organizations.

Encounter's signature class and keynote address offers a unique overview of the primary teachings of world religions in a single presentation. Instead of the usual catalogue of dates and names, this lecture blends ancient stories with a remarkably concise model that explores how various traditions understand thirteen underlying principles. An easy to follow fold-out graphic organizes the world's religious traditions into three broad families. TO SEE, TO BE, TO DO creatively encapsulates decades of study and provides a helpful framework for appreciating diverse ways of thinking.
